

Food chain

Across

- Organisms that get their energy from other organisms
- A group of overlapping food chains FOOD
- Animals that are above secondary consumers in the food pyramid TERTIARY
- Animals that eat the dead bodies of other animals
- Animals that eat only meat
- An organism that lives off the body of other organisms

Down

- Animals that are above producers but below secondary consumers in a food pyramid PRIMARY
- Organisms that break down dead animals and recycle nutrients back into the soil
- Animals that only eat plants
- Animals above primary consumers in the food pyramid SECONDARY
- The process that producers use to make their own food
- Organisms that make their own food through photosynthesis
- Animals that eat plants and other animals
- A chain of living things that are linked together by what they eat FOOD